March 22, 2024

Request granted. The time between now and April 8, 2024 is hereby excluded under the Speedy Trial Act in the interests of justice. The ends of justice served by the exclusion outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial for the reasons set forth by the Government.

SO ORDERED.

Re: United States v. Andre Gaillard, 24 Cr. 005 (CS)

Dear Judge Seibel:

At the January 23, 2024, pretrial conference concerning defendant Andre Gaillard in the above-referenced matter, Your Honor excluded time under the Speedy Trial Act until April 2, 2024—the date of the then-scheduled subsequent pretrial conference. See Jan. 23, 2024 Minute Entry; 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). Specifically, Your Honor held that the exclusion of time would serve the ends of justice, as it will allow the parties to review discovery, figure out next steps, and discuss a potential resolution of this case without the need for a trial.

Yesterday, the next pretrial conference was rescheduled from April 2, 2024, at 2:30 p.m. to April 8, 2024, at 2:30 p.m. The Government respectfully requests that the Court exclude time under the Speedy Trial Act from April 2, 2024 to April 8, 2024, for the same reasons the previous exclusion of time was granted. The defense consents to excluding time through April 8, 2024.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
